2010 AHR Futurity - 4:00 pm

SATURDAY October 23rd, 2010:

Auction - Saturday 8:00 a.m. - -- Selling of all horses in catalog order. Trained horses age 2 and over may be shown in hand, under saddle, or in harness.

Stallion Service Auction to be held prior to the selling of the first mare.

All times are subject to change. No uncataloged consignments accepted.

Vendors Welcome

*Large, centrally located building for vendors or setup outside.
$40.00 set up charge for each 10' x 20' space. No food vendors.*

Camper Hookups - $20.00 per night (upon arrival, please pick up a permit at the gazebo)

Catalogs available after October 1st ($3.00 each or mailed for $5 each). Catalogs will be mailed to all consignors, plus AHR members that request a catalog by September 1st, 2010. The list of consigned horses is also posted on the AHR website at www.haflingerhorse.com.

Consignment Fee: $50. In addition, commission on horses is $50.00 or 5%, whichever is greater. Commission, $15.00 charge per stall, and $20 transfer fee will be withheld from check.

Consignor checks to be mailed no later than 30 days after the sale.

 No refunds after closing date unless the horse is examined by a vet ***

(330) 784-0000 or one of the Sale Committee Members:

Chairman: Dave Wilson - 302-422-3454 or 302-422-9760

Phil Greenisen 330-332-5661 - Andrew Yoder 330-466-3051

 PLEASE READ before returning consignment form: *****

The minimum charges for consigning a horse to the sale follows. Please consider this information carefully:

$50 - Consignment fee. No refunds after close date without a vet slip

$20 - Transfer fee (mares selling with foals at side will require two transfers)

$15 - Stall fee

$50 - Commission MINIMUM. Commission is $50 or 5% of bid price, whichever is greater.

 Consigned horses may be subject to random drug testing *****

2010 foals selling with their dams must have an application for registration submitted (including DNA if applicable) prior to the sale. Please also include a signed transfer for the foal.

When a horse is jointly owned such, as by John and Mary Smith, there must be TWO signatures, not one person that signs John and Mary Smith. Many consignments forms are returned each year for correct signatures! Check the owner recorded on the back of the pedigree BEFORE signing the consignment form and sign accordingly!

A signed breeding certificate must accompany any bred mare being sold.

DNA identification is required on all broodmares and licensed breeding stallions.

A signed gelding certificate MUST accompany any pedigree of a gelding that is still recorded as a stallion.

Horses must sell only in catalog order so if you want horses to sell together, please make sure to include that information in your catalog comments.

Consignor checks to be mailed no later than 30 days after the sale.

* Check-in tips: *******

Bring individual health certificates for each sale horse including proof of flu/rhino/tetanus shots and negative coggins.

The date the shots were given and the list of shots given MUST be included on the health certificate. Photocopies of Coggins papers are NOT accepted. Photocopies of Health Papers are NOT accepted. Consignors will be notified of vet check-in times.
