Chairman: Dave Wilson - 302-422-3454 or 302-422-9760
Phil Greenisen 330-332-5661 - Andrew Yoder 330-466-3051

***** PLEASE READ before returning consignment form: *****

The minimum charges for consigning a horse to the sale follows. Please consider this information carefully:

$50 - Consignment fee. No refunds after close date without a vet slip

$20 - Transfer fee (mares selling with foals at side will require two transfers)

$22 - Stall fee

$50 - Commission MINIMUM. Commission is $50 or 5% of bid price, whichever is greater.

*** Consigned horses may be subject to random drug testing *****

2012 foals selling with their dams must have an application for registration submitted (including DNA if applicable) prior to the sale. Please also include a signed transfer for the foal. (Foal transfer fee will be deducted from the payout check.)

When a horse is jointly owned such, as by John and Mary Smith, there must be TWO signatures, not one person that signs John and Mary Smith. Many consignment forms are returned each year for correct signatures! Check the owner recorded on the back of the pedigree BEFORE signing the consignment form and sign accordingly!

A signed breeding certificate must accompany any bred mare being sold.

DNA identification is required on all broodmares and licensed breeding stallions.

A signed gelding certificate MUST accompany any pedigree of a gelding that is still recorded as a stallion.

***** Check-in tips: *******

Bring individual health certificates for each sale horse including proof of flu/rhino/tetanus shots and negative coggins. The date the shots were given and the list of shots given MUST be included on the health certificate. Photocopies of Coggins papers are NOT accepted. Photocopies of Health Papers are NOT accepted. Consignors will be notified of vet check-in times.
